RASA MIMAMSA 2026

RASA MIMAMSA-2026 is envisioned as a scientific forum dedicated to exploring the traditional formulations and contemporary relevance of Rasaushadhi in modern era. The conference will focus on recent research advances, safety evaluation, regulatory frameworks, and pharmacovigilance compliance related to Rasaushadhi. It seeks to integrate classical Rasashastra principles with modern analytical, safety and clinical research approaches through keynote lectures, thematic scientific sessions, research paper presentations, and expert panel discussions. The forum aims to promote the rational use of Rasaushadhi, strengthen its scientific credibility, and delineate future directions for the safe, standardized and globally acceptable application of herbo-mineral and mineral formulations in clinical practice. There will be a separate session with panel discussion on sustainable practices (need, procurement, lab and industrial scale processing, utilization and documentation of safety & efficacy) of mercurial formulations. Invited speeches include sensitization with applicable, less utilized analytical facilities for Rasaushadhi and preclinical evaluation protocols.

ABOUT THE INSTITUTE

The Institute of Teaching and Research in Ayurveda (ITRA), Jamnagar, established as an Institute of National Importance (INI) under the ITRA Act, 2020, is a premier institution under the Ministry of Ayush, Government of India, and the country's first INI in the Ayush sector, dedicated to promote excellence in education, research, and training in Ayurveda and allied disciplines. With a legacy spanning over eight decades of antecedent Institute (IPGT&RA), ITRA stands as a custodian of classical Ayurveda while actively advancing evidence-based research and contemporary healthcare integration and adherence to global healthcare standards.

ITRA offers comprehensive undergraduate, postgraduate, and doctoral programs, supported by robust drug development, preclinical and clinical facilities. Additionally, ITRA contributes to global outreach through its International Centre for Ayurvedic Studies, which plays a key role in training international fellows in Ayurveda from various countries and offers academic and training programs for international scholars.

The Institute has NABH-accredited hospital facilities with OPD and 300-bed IPD facilities, independent research and NABL-accredited clinical laboratories, reflecting its commitment to quality healthcare and research. The Institute publishes the peer-reviewed "AYU" Journal. ITRA currently serves as the only Ayurveda institute designated as a WHO Collaborating Centre for Traditional Medicines (Ayurveda).

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

The Department of Rasashastra & Bhaishajya Kalpana at ITRA, has been a pioneer in Ayurvedic education and pharmaceutical development since 1956. The department focuses on preserving classical techniques for Rasaushadhi, development and validation of standard operating procedures (SOPs), and advancing standardization, research (preclinical and clinical) of Ayurvedic formulations. Research activities emphasize standardization of Bhasma and the safety evaluation of heavy-metal origin medicines, with 431 dissertations completed till date.
